Dear Rev. Freeman:

I wish to thank you and the many generous people who helped to shepherd the His Presence First Responders Event. It was clear from the attendance Friday and Saturday, the event was successful and meaningful. The benefit to members of the New Orleans area police, fire, and E.M.S. personnel shall be felt for years to come. The event has provided first responders with an additional tool to aid the public in these trying times.

Once again, please pass on our heartfelt gratitude to your sponsors. Without the continued concern and support of those across our nation, we will not be able to emerge from this disaster whole and healthy. I am grateful for your acknowledgement of our first responders, their continued need for support and your recognition of their heroism and courage.

Sincerely,

Superintendent of Police
City of New Orleans
