Release of Liability:

In consideration of the services performed on my flood-damaged property by workers provided by the General Council of the Assemblies of God, any of its affiliates, and any church denomination working with the General Council of the Assemblies of God, I hereby authorize said workers to perform work on my property free of charge as part of then-disaster response, and I release all of said entities and their agents, representatives, employees, volunteers, and contractors from any liability for any claims, demands, damages, injuries, or causes of action, present or future, relating to personal injury or property damage, whether known, anticipated or unanticipated, resulting from or arising out of the service provided by said workers on my property. I understand and acknowledge that the above entities are nonprofit organizations that do not have insurance coverage for the work to be done on my property. I have been informed and understand that any work performed on my property by said workers is not warranted or guaranteed.

By signing this agreement electronically or otherwise, I agree to be bound by the terms contained herein. I have read and understand and sign this Release of Liability on this
